

The Australasian Musculoskeletal Medicine Conference (incorporating the 37th AAMM Scientific Meeting)

Low Back Pain and Sciatica – Current Evidence and Management

17-19 October 2008 • The Sebel, Albert Park • Melbourne • Victoria • Australia

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

In October 2008, Melbourne will host the inaugural combined Australasian Musculoskeletal Medicine Scientific Conference, under the combined banners of the Australian Association of Musculoskeletal Medicine, the Australasian Faculty of Musculoskeletal Medicine, the Australian College of Physical Medicine, and the New Zealand Association of Musculoskeletal Medicine.

This promises to be a very exciting initiative, and represents the coming together, for the first time, of these four previously autonomous organisations, which, collectively represent all of the major Australasian players in this important field of medical practice.

The conference organising committee invite you to participate in this meeting by sponsoring or exhibiting at the meeting.

The theme of this conference is "Low Back Pain and Sciatica – Current Evidence and Management".
