

Acute Pain Workshop. Sunday 28 th March 2010
09:00 – 10:30.
09:00 – 09:30	Ian Nisbet	Development of Xen2174 for intrathecal pain management in chronic and acute pain conditions
09:30-10:00	Maree Smith	What's different about oxycodone: pharmacological view
Morning tea 10-10.30
10:30 – 12:30.
10:30-11:00	James Sartain	Data and the APS
11:00-11:30	David Scott	Sedation monitoring: the role of CO2 monitoring
11:30-12:00	Richard Halliwell	Advanced Measuring of pain (including QST) and pain services
12:00-12:30	All speakers	Panel discussion/ Invited Audience questions
Lunch 12.30 – 13.30
13:30 – 15:00: Main lecture theatre: The vulnerable and psychiatric patient in the Acute Pain Service
13.30-14.00	Bryce Clubb	Management of patient with drug dependence/ addiction in acute pain setting
14.00-14.30	Kym Boon	Anxiety/ Depression and Personality disorders. How do we manage these issues in the acute pain setting
14.30-15.00	Both speakers	Some Case discussion: Chemical coper, Discharge planning, pre-operative preparation
Afternoon tea -
15:30 – 17:00: Concurrent sessions
Room 1		Room 2
Kath Cooke, Jules Richards and Dr Anjana Kundu: Paediatric pain seminar Paediatric Pain management at a distance: organizational aspects		Acute Pain Service Discussion forum: Moderators: Helen Carmosino/ Dr Jane Trinca Acute pain services: Networking, Standards, protocols, service structure, continuum of care. Caroline Phelan - New Initiatives: pain service structure - transition from acute to persistent pain Angela Wai and Lisa Pulver: Launch of the NPS audit tool for Acute Pain Management Trudy Maunsell -