- ▶ The Hunter experience: Taking the opportunity to work collaboratively with the medicare local to fast track pain management in primary care
- ▶ Early intervention to reduce persistent post-trauma pain
- ▶ Suicide and assisted dying
- ▶ New horizons in spinal cord pharmacology: Opioids and beyond
- ▶ Low back pain: Untangling nociceptive, neuroplastic and neuropathic components
- ▶ Stress, pain and evolution: Connecting the dots for a better explanation of chronic pain
- ▶ Practical pain management: Strategies that really work for older people

Pre Conference Workshops

Sunday 1 April 2012

Please note: If attending a Pre-Conference Workshop as well as the ASM you are entitled to an Au$50 discount on your ASM registration fee, which will be calculated when registering.

A. Acute Pain Day - 8.30am - 5.00pm

The Acute Pain Day is rapidly becoming a popular and well-established satellite meeting to the APS ASM. It is a 'must attend' for anyone interested in acute pain management. The 2012 Acute Pain Day will explore the APS ASM theme of Integrated Perspectives of Pain from the acute pain perspective. This time, the focus is squarely on the patient.

B. Fundamentals of Pain Management

9.00am - 5.00pm This stimulating workshop comprises 3 lectures and interactive case studies covering Neurobiology of Pain, Psychosocial Influences on Pain & Medications for Pain Relief.

C. The Neuromodulation Society of Australia & New Zealand Annual Meeting - 8.30am - 5.00pm

An outstanding international guest speaker and local speakers will present on these topics:

- ▶ Treating complex head pain
- ▶ Pelvic pain and incontinence
- ▶ DBS for movement disorder

This workshop is aimed at specialists and GPs. The Society Dinner will be held Sunday 1 April, 7.30pm at La Luna Restaurant (after the Welcome Reception).
