

CALL TO ACTION

A WORLD STROKE CAMPAIGN SYMPOSIUM

Ensuring Quality Care and Support After Stroke

Sculpture in Melbourne, Australia.

WORLD CONGRESS FOR NEUROREHABILITATION 2012 • MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA

Thursday, 17 May 2012 • 18:00 – 19:30
Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre

Symposium organised and funded by

ANZ/0042/2012

Date of preparation: March 2012

Ensuring Quality Care and Support After Stroke

This symposium developed by a multi-disciplinary faculty is a call-to-action for the implementation of processes and tools to ensure quality post-stroke care that maximises stroke survivor function and enhances quality-of-life.

SYMPOSIUM PROGRAMME

► Welcome and introductions

Dr. John Olver
*Chair of Rehabilitation Medicine
Monash University
Melbourne, Victoria, Australia*

► Sustained and customised rehabilitation maximises brain recovery

Dr. David Good
*Chair of Neurology
Penn State Hershey Medical Center
Hershey, Pennsylvania, United States of America*

► Evidence based post stroke interventions: the must haves

Dr. Geoffrey Donnan
*Director, Florey Neuroscience Institutes
University of Melbourne
Melbourne, Victoria, Australia*

► Processes and tools ensure quality care and support after stroke

Dr. Anthony Ward
*Professor of Rehabilitation Medicine
University Hospital of North Staffordshire
Stoke-on-Trent, United Kingdom*

► Closing remarks on behalf of the World Stroke Campaign

Dr. Stephen Davis
*Professor of Translational Neuroscience
University of Melbourne
Melbourne, Victoria, Australia*

Thursday, 17 May 2012 • 18:00 – 19:30

Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre, Melbourne, Australia